OFFICE OF THE INSPECTOR GENERAL OF POLICE IN MYSORE.

Dated Bangalore 14th February 1894.

Enclosure. 10

From

The Inspector General of Police, in Mysore.

To

The Chief Secretary to the Government of Mysore

SIR,

I have the honor to forward copy of this Office Circular letter No. 647-24 dated 23rd August 1893 to the District Magistrates on the subject of securing a uniform system of delivery of licenses issued under the Arms Act, with a view to enable the Police to keep a record of such licenses, and the replies (in original) received from the District Magistrates. It will be seen that all the District Magistrates, except those of Bangalore, Kolar and Hassan state that the present practice in their Districts is to transmit the licenses through the Taluk Police, who are thus enabled to keep a register of license-holders; and they consider that the practice may continue.

2. The District Magistrates of Bangalore, Kolar and Hassan while admitting the desirability of the local Police keeping a register of licensees, consider that the practice of delivering the licenses through the Police will lead to delay and corruption and suggest that the Superintendent of Police may may obtain copies of the list of licensees from the District Magistrate's Court. The District Magistrate of Kolar appears to be in the habit of sending licenses, as a rule, through the Amildar and in some instances direct to the parties, probably by post.

3. The weight of opinion among the District Magistrates is thus decidedly in favor of delivering licenses through the Taluk Police.

4. I am of opinion that it is necessary for the Police, in order to work the Arms Act efficiently and at the same time to obviate hasty proceedings and arrests, to have a record of persons possessing licenses for arms, at every sub-station. The Taluk Head Station should likewise have a Register for the whole Taluk. The most convenient arrangement for securing this is by causing the delivery of the licenses through the Taluk Police, the names and description of the license-holders being entered in a book before delivery of licenses. The practice of delivery through the Police obtains in the majority of Districts and has not given rise to complaints. The suggestion that the Office of the Police Superintendent may take copies of the District Magistrate's Register appears to involve needless correspondence and additional work, and is not likely to work well. Delay and possible corruption on the part of the Police are easily remedied by a little supervision on the part of the superior Officers.

5. For the above reasons, I request that Government may be pleased to rule that licenses for arms should be delivered to the parties concerned through the Police-who should record the -names of such license-holders in the Station books.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,

Your most obedient Servant

To

THE DISTRICT MAGISTRATE
of Districts

SIR,

I have the honor to state that in some Districts, Licenses granted under the Arms Act are transmitted by the Districts Magistrate's Court to the Licensees direct, while in other places they are forwarded for delivery through the Taluk Police who are thus enabled to keep a record of persons possessing arms. The latter course manifestly appears desirable. With a view to secure uniformity of practice, a ruling seems to be necessary; and I shall be glad to be favored with your opinion as to the desirability of maintaining a record in the Police Sub-Stations of the men licensed to keep arms within their limits, and about issuing the Licenses through the Police so as to enable them to enter such Licenses in the Station Register before delivery.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant.
